

Don't Miss This All Day Seminar: Four Outstanding Topics, Four Knowledgeable Speakers!

“Inspecting Older Homes”
September 27, 2001

Holiday Inn Boston/Randolph, MA

1) Post & Beam Structures: Tom Green, Owner, Colonial Restorations, Brookfield, MA. Colonial Restorations specializes in the structural restoration of post and beam buildings. Learn about framing and identification and how to conduct exterior inspections, including what to look for in terms of sill/beam damage and roof sags/deflections. Inspections of sills will also be covered.

2) Energy Saving Restoration Options for Older Windows: Dave Voorhis, Window Master, Inc., Dublin, NH

With many homeowners demanding authenticity and preservation of older home architectural elements, dealing with original windows presents a special challenge especially in terms of energy efficiency. Our presenter will introduce you to a new system that upgrades existing windows to double-glazed, insulated glass.

3) Pest Inspection: Galvin Murphy, Yankee Pest Control, Malden, MA

A popular presenter for ASHI-NE in the past, Murphy will discuss typical infestation problems associated with older structures and some not so common ones too. Pest control management practices and detecting signs of pest activity will be addressed.

4) Proper Installation and Inspection Procedures For Cedar Shakes and Shingles: Homer Earll, Mid-Atlantic/Northeast States District Manager, Cedar Shake & Shingle Bureau, Sumas, WA. The bureau, a trade association in existence since 1915, sets the standards for grading of cedar shakes and shingles and wrote the code for their proper application. You'll learn proper application techniques and see examples of improper installation.
