Attn: Mr. Dennis Robitaille

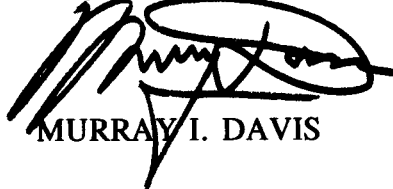

Dear Mr. Robitaille:

I read with great interest, enthusiasm and appreciation, the article "A homely alliance?" in the November 13th edition of North Shore Sunday. In my opinion you have publicly identified a serious problem that many others speak of privately. You are the only one of whom I am aware, who is determined and brave enough to volunteer time in an effort to correct it. KUDOS!

If in some small way you believe that I may be of assistance, please do not hesitate to call; for your information in this regard, I enclose my professional precis and a publicity release which appeared in the November 10th edition of the Swampscott Reporter. Although I write this letter in my individual capacity, I would like to consider bringing this issue before the Ethics Committee of the Massachusetts Conveyancers Association, of which I am an active member. Also, several years ago, I assisted in writing a position paper in behalf of some proposed real estate legislation sponsored by the Boston Bar Association. I would consider testifying in behalf of appropriate legislation addressing this broker/inspector conflict of interest.

I will wait to hear from you.

Very truly yours,

MURRAY I. DAVIS
